Janet Chase Certified in Financial Forensics (CFF ®)

Charlotte, NC: South Park Advisors is pleased to announce that the American Institute of CPAs (AICPA), the world's largest member association representing the accounting profession has certified Janet Chase, ASA, CPA/ABV, CEIV with the distinguished designation of Certified in Financial Forensics (CFF ®). Rob Snowden, founder of South Park Advisors notes that "I applaud Janet's continued commitment to advance her skills in the area of financial forensics. The rigorous examination process attests to her desire to provide the highest level of expertise to her clients."

The American Institute of CPAs (AICPA) established the Certified in Financial Forensics (CFF®) credential program in 2008 for CPAs who specialize in forensic accounting. The CFF credential is granted exclusively to CPAs who demonstrate considerable expertise in forensic accounting through their knowledge, skills and experience. CFF credential candidates must have a minimum of 1,000 hours of business experience in forensic accounting within the five-year period preceding the date of the CFF application.

Janet has more than 20 years of experience providing valuation and litigation services to both private and public companies ranging in size from less than $1 million to over $1 billion in sales. Her experience includes financial reporting, litigation & dispute resolution, deal advisory, economic damages, bankruptcy restructuring, lost profits, tax advisory, mergers & acquisitions, corporate strategy, tax compliance and planning, purchase price allocations, impairment analysis, intangible assets, portfolio valuation, fair value analysis, stock options & warrants, and equity valuation.
